NEW NATIONAL ARENA WATERCROSS SERIES TO HIT THE UNITED STATES

Tony Dwyer, long time Action Sports event producer and musician is producing a long awaited series of indoor arena Watercross races & Water sports stunt shows called H2X. The first events are slated for 6 consecutive days on July 22nd - 27th 2008 in the Grandstand Arena at the Orange County Fairgrounds during the O.C. Fair in Costa Mesa, California.

This week of activities will consist of 3 separate races set up as a "mini series" with races being split into Qualifying night, then semis & mains on the second night, then repeated 3 times throughout the week. Also, a Big Air stunt show will feature a 'Las Vegas' style water sports thrill shows. These shows will include Wakeboarders, Kneeboarders, Wakeskaters, and Freestyle PWC jumpers flipping and tricking off a huge water jump. All the riders will perform to a backdrop of music and colored lighting effects.

Tentative list of classes will: Pro Ski GP, Pro Ski Stock, Pro Runabout Open and Pro Runabout Stock. In addition there will be a watercraft Freestyle show with select Freestyle riders invited to participate. This is the first of several events planned for the United States for 2008. Several other events are currently being organized for additional venues in other areas of the country in the later months of the year. More information on the first event, as well as the additional events to be released soon.
