IMPORTANT INFORMATION

The race site is situated on the Gulf of Mexico behind Perdido Beach Resort. The pits will be located across the street, so it will be necessary to have a tote and an ATV to transport PWC's to the beach. There will be room for the first ten RV's to make reservations with Surf and Turf Promotions. This is a five star, full service resort that is so accommodating, once you park, you will not need a vehicle because everything is available on site. This is a family vacation destination that features several restaurants, shops, and everything for your family to enjoy. An estimated 5,000 spectators per day are expected to attend, and the local newspapers, TV, and radio stations will be in attendance to ensure a well-publicized event. This event will be one you do not want to miss! Late registration and check-in will be available at Perdido Beach Resort on Friday, August 1st. Racer parties are being scheduled at some of the pan handle's finest establishments! Hope to see you there!
