For immediate Release:

Macc Racing Preparing for the 2010 Dana Point to Avalon Sprint

Race Date: March 28, 2010

Location: Dana Point, California to Santa Catalina Island

Professional watercraft racer, Chris Macclugage will be competing on a Macc Racing prepared Yamaha Waverunner at the RPM Racing Enterprises 'Dana Point to Avalon Sprint'. This PWC Offshore race covers a 40 mile open ocean transit through unpredictable water and weather conditions.

The Sprint is the first race in the prestigious APBA 'Triple Crown of Offshore'. A three race offshore series; recognized as America's only Offshore National Championship with the infamous LB2CAT.

Chris Macclugage is the 13 time IJSBA Pro Ski and Runabout World Champion. He's competed extensively in national and international offshore and endurance races. Chris brings with him the Championship quality of excellence and race experience covering over two decades of world class podium finishes.

Yamaha Waverunners are known for their performance on the race track and for their durability to hold up to the grueling offshore experience. Chris will be pushing his Waverunner to lead the charge and set the pace for the Triple Crown event.

Come join us at Macc Racing at the first PWC offshore race of the season!

Triple Crown of Offshore Schedule
